

College of Education and Human Development (CEHD) Outstanding Faculty Mentoring Award

(Last Revised : March 2021)

Purpose of Award:

This award recognizes tenured faculty members who have given selflessly of their time, knowledge, and energy to guide and support one or more assistant professors in their progress toward tenure.

Award:

- The winner of this award will receive $1000 in professional development funds.
- One award will be given each year to a tenured Associate or Full Professor. (Department Heads and Deans are not eligible for this award)

Nomination:

- Only Assistant Professors are eligible to submit nominations.
- Nominations will be solicited from CEHD faculty by the Office of Faculty Affairs.

Selection Committee:

- The Selection Committee will be comprised of one Assistant Professor, one Department Head, and the immediate past recipient of this award.

Nomination Packet:

- The nomination packets should be limited to one nomination letter and one letter of support.
- Letters should describe the nature and amount of mentoring received by the nominator, the period of time during which the mentoring occurred, and the impact of the mentoring on the faculty member's progress toward tenure and overall professional growth.